

ARTHUR L. JOHNSON HIGH SCHOOL
HALL OF FAME
Class of 2018

The Arthur L. Johnson High School Hall of Fame was created to honor distinguished Faculty and alumni individuals associated with the high school, who have contributed in a positive manner to their profession, their community, or to the students of Arthur L. Johnson High School. There are five categories listed below for which an individual can be nominated. Hall of Fame recipients will be recognized at the Annual Alumni Dinner in May of each year, at the ALJ Senior Awards Ceremony in June of each year, on the school's Hall of Fame website, and in the permanent display at the high school.

Hall of Fame Categories and Descriptions

All nominees must have graduated from ALJ (ten or more years from graduation year) or served as a faculty/staff member or been associated with the school for a minimum of six years.

- Accomplished Professional – The individual has performed at an extraordinary level in his or her chosen profession and has become a leader and/or role model for others in his or her profession.
- Community Contributor – The individual has made contributions to his or her community (local, county, state, or national organizations) that have had an impact on the community and its citizens.
- Volunteer – The individual has performed as a volunteer through an organization or the community to benefit the needs of others in need in a manner that is above that of the typical volunteer.
- Crusader Pride – The individual has made contributions to ALJ during his or her time at the high school that has left a lasting and positive effect on the school and or district.
- Distinguished Faculty – The individual has had a profound impact on the lives of the students of ALJ as a teacher, administrator or in a supporting role during his or her employment at the school.

A maximum of five individuals will be inducted each year, with the exception of year one when up to ten individuals will be inducted. The formal application must be completed and submitted for an individual to be considered. The inductees each year do not have to be from each individual category (i.e. two volunteers can be inducted in one year). Any person can nominate an individual for induction into the Arthur L. Johnson High School Hall of Fame. Nominees and their nominators along with the nominee's family and guests will be invited to attend the induction ceremony, but do not have to attend to be considered for induction.
